

Main Title Papier blanc, encre noire : Cent ans de Littérature francophone en Afrique centrale (Zaïre, Rwanda et Burundi) : [Catalogue de l'exposition à l'Hôtel Charlier, 4 décembre 1992 - 24 janvier 1993] / Marc Quuaghebeur, Annick Vilain, Nadine Fettweis.

Published/Created Brussels: Cellule "Fin de siècle", 1992.

Description
73 p.

Cote
MLA 13104

Other titles
White Paper, Black Ink: one hundred years of francophone literature in central Africa (Zaïre, Rwanda, and Burundi): catalogue from exhibition held at the Hôtel Charlier, December 4, 1992 – January 24, 1993)

Subjects
Colonial Literature
Francophonie
Central Africa
Burundi
Rwanda
Zaïre

Notes
Exposition catalogue

Series
Papier blanc, encre poire,

Type of material
book

This work contains historical syntheses and historical biographies on the principal French-language Congolese writers as well as on the colonial and postcolonial Belgian writers linked to central Africa. It also contains a notebook of color reproductions of Belgian colonial paintings in addition to those of the first African painters.