

Main Title Correspondance générale I : Emile et Marthe Verhaeren, Stefan Zweig (1900-1926) / Fabrice van de Kerckhove.

Published/Created Brussels: Archives et Musée de la Littérature - Labor, 1996.

Description
606 p.

ISBN
2-8040-0909-2

Cote
MLA 14345

Other titles
General Correspondence I: Emile and Marthe Verhaeren, Stefan Zweig (1900-1926)

Subjects
Stefan Zweig
Emile Verhaeren
First World War

Notes
Letters of correspondence

Series
Archives du Futur

Type of material
book

At a point in time where the idea of Europe increasingly haunts the conscience, it was opportune to publish the correspondence of the ultimate author of dimension and of international renown, one of the first intellectuals to dream of a moral and fraternal configuration of Europe. His interlocuteur is Stefan Zweig (1881-1942), Austro-Hungarian novelist and essayist who was also his translator.