A symposium held from May 7-9, 1996 at the Royal Library of Belgium, run thanks to the initiative of the Archives and Museum of Literature in collaboration with the Musée d'Orsay.

En preparation for the French and Belgian strikes in 1997, this international symposium is attached to the study of literary and intellectual exchanges as well as the historic grounds of the relations between the two countries during the period of 1848 to 1914.
