The richness and diversity of what is written today in francophone countries leads to new reading approaches concerning these texts as well as those written elsewhere in the world. It is necessary to find ways in which to teach these texts. Questions of transmission, of analytical and interpretive frameworks, but also of choice of the works themselves...

A symposium that approached authors such as Cimpaye, Detrez, Ducharme, Farès, Genvrin, Glissant, Ionesco, Kalisky, Khaïreddine, Labou Tansi, Ménil, Noël, Mudimbé, Velan... With a methodological annex on the study of Mertens' work.
