In this numéro: a record dedicated to the First World War with an inventory of document relating to 1914-1918 and to the echoes of the correspondences written by soldiers at the battlefield, prisoners, and by war refugees. Recurrent themes in our archives, and already approached in the third numéro, present themselves still: the Congo, with the missionaries of Mill Hill, the accounts for the Second World War, as well as those of militancy in Belgium.
