Henry Bauchau left us one year ago.

On this occasion, the Archives and Literature Museum publish, in collaboration with the Society of Readers of Henry Bauchau, the fifth numéro of the Cahiers Henry Bauchau. It is dedicated to Gengis Khan, the play that really allowed the publication of this numéro.

This publication of some 200 pages also includes important information on the creation of the piece by Ariane Mnouchkine as well as analyses of the text, which concern in particular manuscripts of the piece and newspapers that are preserved in the Archives and Museum of Literature.
